Pan-American Envoys to Confer With Lansing in N. Y.

By Associated Press.
FORT HUACHUCA, Ariz., Sept. 14.—Persistent reports of a plot to foment an uprising among the Mexican residents of Tucson, Arizona, next Thursday, Mexican Independence Day, resulted in an order today of two troops of cavalry from this post. The troops will arrive at Tucson tomorrow.

They were ordered to the city after a visit here of Acting Mayor A. C. Bernard.

Arrangements to station a large number of armed men at the Armory water works and other public utility plants were made at a mass meeting of citizens. A third of the 20,000 residents of Tucson are Mexicans.

ENVOYS TO MEET SATURDAY.

By Associated Press.
WASHINGTON, Sept. 14.—Secretary Lansing announced today that the Pan-American conference on the Mexican situation which was to have been convened here tomorrow will not be held until Saturday and that it will be in New York City.

Villa's action in sending Roque Gonzales Garza, General Felipe Angeles and probably Diaz Lobrado, his minister of foreign relations, to Washington, is said to have been decided upon because of a probability of a conference over Mexican affairs, as a result of the Pan-American conference here tomorrow. Just how Carranza's suggestion that the Pan-American conference appoint delegates to confer on Mexican international affairs will be worked out is not apparent.

LANSING CALLS ON ENVOYS.

By Associated Press.
WASHINGTON, Sept. 14.—Diplomatic representatives of the six Latin-American republics now in or near Washington had calls from Secretary Lansing today for meetings here to renew consideration of the Mexican situation. Conferees will have before them reports of their appeal that the American leaders meet in a peace conference. The Villa and Zapata factions sent favorable replies, but Carranza rejected the appeal. He made a counter proposal that the diplomats meet to consider international phases of the problem and his claims for recognition.

Some of the conferees, it is understood, favor accepting Carranza's proposition, which, if adopted, would compel postponement of any conference in which the Villa and Zapata elements might participate. In the past several weeks Carranza armies have forced their campaign in northern and central Mexico. Villa representatives in Washington, however, contend that the losses by their forces have been greater than Carranza's and that Carranza is making a desperate demonstration in the northern states aimed at impressing the powers interested in pacification of the country.

MEXICAN CONFESSES.

By Associated Press.
DOUGLAS, Ariz., Sept. 14.—Leander Maldonado, a Mexican arrested at Cananea at the request of Sheriff Harry Wheeler and now held in the Agua Prieta jail pending the receipt of an order from General Calles to turn him over to the American authorities on a charge of slaying Walter Brooks, a British officer, three months ago, is said to have confessed that he and Padro Ramirez, now under arrest at Bisbee, were ordered to Vera Cruz today to relieve the Louisiana and the New Hampshire, and who had had one of the most spectacular careers in the mining history of the Northwest, was arrested here last night on a warrant from Seattle sworn to by Mrs. Lola Beebe. Mrs. Beebe is grandmother of Fred Gates, 12-year-old son of the late Gates. She charges that Gates has neglected to support the child.

Gates said he had given Mrs. Beebe between $10,000 and $12,000 for the care of the child.

Gates at one time owned rich mining properties in Alaska. He lost most of his fortune in an unsuccessful water transportation company.

Three Badly Burned in Pipe Explosion

VALLEJO, Sept. 14.—Chief Machinist J. J. Jordan, Seaman J. S. Fikes and Fireman H. C. Thomas were terribly burned at Mare Island this morning when a three-inch steam pipe blew out in the electrical school. The men were working directly over the pipe when it suddenly spouted and they were enveloped in steam. They had to fight their way out of the building and were badly burned about the face and hands.

Of the three men were taken to the hospital. It is not known now what caused the pipe to expand unless it was of poor construction. It is not thought the men are fatally injured.

CRITICISM OF IS FIRST BODY MORF MADE BY WOODS

A controversy which may result in an open breach between Dr. Jackson's office and members of the city attorney's office has resulted from the dismissal of the appeal taken by the city against the judgment handed down by Judge James Quinn awarding damages amounting to $299 to Thomas Placun against Patrolman Ernest Holmberg. The appeal of the city against the judgment was lost through the failure of the city attorney's office to make an appearance on behalf of the city and Patrolman Holmberg on two occasions when the case was set for hearing before Superior Judge Donahue.

Chief of Police William F. Woods has filed a letter with Commissioner F. P. Jackson in which he attacks the city attorney's office for negligence and incapacity to fulfill its duties. The letter has not been made public and Woods refused to discuss the affair today. It is said to contain several exceedingly drastic criticisms of the office of City Attorney Paul C. Mori.

Last June Thomas Placun was arrested on a charge of violating a city ordinance in refusing to move on during a street altercation over the European war. When the case came up in court the charge was stricken from the calendar. Placun brought suit against Holmberg for false arrest and a jury in Judge Quinn's court awarded him $299 damages.

APPEAL DECIDED ON.

It was decided that an appeal should be taken from this judgment. Chief Woods and other members of the police department asked the advice of the city attorney's office as to whether it would be advisable to employ additional counsel, but were informed by the city attorney that this would not be necessary. The appeal was set down for a hearing last Friday, but no one appeared for the city. A continuance was had until yesterday before Judge Donahue and still no appearance was put in by the city attorney's office. The appeal was dismissed by default.

Immediately after the dismissal of the appeal a sheriff's officer was sent to the place of business of William Quigley, one of Holmberg's bondsmen, and Martin Ryan, the other bondsmen, was also notified. Quigley objected to an officer being at his liquor store and Chief Woods and Captain J. F. Lynch were sworn in as bondsmen.

The question as to what further steps will be taken has not been decided. City Attorney Mori stated that he considered the matter had probably been settled. The case has been handled by Assistant City Attorney W. A. O'Brien and Mori admitted that a mistake had been made by O'Brien in not appearing. O'Brien declared that he had been in on Friday and did not know about the case being continued until Monday. The controversy has resulted in unpleasant feeling between the two offices, but there is a remote possibility that this may be bridged as Attorney George Jackson, who is a member of the city attorney's staff, is a brother of the commissioner and may act as a peace envoy.

U. S. NOT TO ARBITRATE ARABIC

Evidence in Case Given to Bernstorff for Berlin

Berlin Denies Hesperian Was Sunk by Germans

By Associated Press.
BERLIN, Sept. 14, 1:10 p. m., via London, 6:10 p. m.—The German government, in a note from the foreign office to Ambassador Gerdorf, delivered at noon today, made a qualified disclaimer of responsibility for the sinking of the steamship Hesperian. On the face of the evidence thus far at hand, the government is satisfied that the Hesperian was not sunk by a German submarine.

By Associated Press.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 14.—The American government is not yet willing to discuss with Germany the question of arbitration in connection with the sinking of the Arabic. It is stated today by a high government official "that the question of arbitration is not in issue."

It was explained authoritatively that what the American government first wants is a disavowal of the attack on the Arabic. Afterward it was indicated that the government may be willing to arbitrate the question of indemnity.

Count von Bernstorff, the German ambassador, has communicated the view of the American government to Berlin, and it is expected he will receive a reply within the next week or ten days. The United States is disposed to give him full opportunity to impress upon the Berlin government the view of President Wilson as disclosed to him yesterday by Secretary Lansing.

HOPE FOR DISAVOWAL.

Officials realize that the situation is grave, they are hopeful that when Berlin learns of the facts in possession of the State Department the act will be disavowed. The department has given Count von Bernstorff full opportunity to communicate with the government and Secretary Lansing has promised him to afford every facility for representing the American view.

It was said today that the ambassador and the secretary discussed entirely the question of a disavowal. When the German ambassador had the opportunity at the State Department carefully to examine a mass of evidence gathered by the United States giving in technical detail the position of the Arabic, the British steamship and the German submarine, up to and including the time the torpedoes were fired which destroyed both vessels.

The proof offered is understood to be chiefly that the German submarine was at right angles to the Arabic when fired the torpedo and that the liner could not see the submarine because, up to the moment of firing, it was concealed behind the Dunsley. These facts now have been transmitted through diplomatic channels to the German foreign office and officials are waiting to learn what effect a study of this evidence in Berlin will have on the point of view of the German government.

LENNON, Mass., Sept. 14.—The Austro-Hungarian ambassador, Dr. Constantin T. Dumba, today announced that he had requested his foreign office to recall him on leave of absence in order that he might make a personal report on the situation in the United States which resulted in a request by the United States government for his recall.

In authorizing the Associated Press to make the above announcement, Dr. Dumba expressed indignation that the text of his message to the Austro-Hungarian minister of foreign affairs, Baron von Burian, already had become public without his consent or knowledge.

In view of the situation, he said, he probably would not make public a statement of his position at this time, but would, however, have something to say through the Austrian press when he reached Vienna. He (Continued on Page 2, Col. 5)

War Widow Homeless, Son in State Asylum

By Associated Press.
SAN BERNARDINO, Sept. 14.—When the war broke out in Europe, Mrs. Nancy Brooks, 32 years old, was robbed of her husband, an officer in the British army. Zeppelin attacks subsequently destroyed her home in England. She then traveled across the sea and a continent to spend her declining days with her son, who was "lost" heard of on a ranch near here.

She found him today incurably insane in the Patton State Hospital. The shock of his father's death and the refusal of the recruiting officers in Vancouver, B. C., to permit him to join the colors with the Canadian contingent had unbalanced his mind. New-found friends are endeavoring to obtain a home for the stricken widow.

LONDON, Sept. 14, 4:25 p. m.—Official admission that the cabinet is seriously debating the subject of conscription was made public for the first time in the House of Commons this afternoon.

The subject was raised when the motion for adjournment was made. It was brought up by both the opponents and advocates of conscription. Premier Asquith finally arose and announced: "This is not a matter which has escaped the attention of the government. When the government, without undue delay and with the due deliberation which the gravity of the subject demands, has arrived at its conclusions they will be presented to the house and will then become the subject of parliamentary discussion."

The unusual interest centering in the reopening of parliament was shown by the large attendance today; but the more important matters which are absorbing public attention were postponed until tomorrow. Premier Asquith will then move a new vote of credit and will give the country a general review of the military and financial situation.

British Loss Now 381,983 Men

By Associated Press.

LONDON, Sept. 14, 3 p. m.—Official announcement was made today in the House of Commons that the total of British war casualties up to August 21st was 381,983 officers and men killed, wounded or missing.

Detailed figures of the casualties are announced as follows: Killed and died of wounds—Officers 4965, other ranks 70,992. Wounded—Officers 9973, other ranks 241,086. Missing—Officers 1501, other ranks 53,466. These figures refer to the army alone.

The Star says that the total casualties from airship raids, during the last seven days amount to 166. "During this period there have been no fewer than five air raids on England," the Star says. "The first raid of the series took place on Tuesday night, resulting in fifty-six casualties. The second, in the eastern counties, occurred on the following night when there were 106 victims—the third and fourth were both futile. Yesterday's attack—with four victims—brings up the total for the five raids to 166."

Losses of the British army during the summer were somewhat smaller than in April and May. This probably is accounted for by the comparative inaction along the Franco-Belgian front. It may be assumed that the heaviest proportion of losses was at the Dardanelles.

The last previous statement of the total of British casualties was made by Premier Asquith June 9th. It gave a total of 258,069 up to May 31st. The losses from that time up to August 21st are therefore shown to have been 123,914, a daily average of about 1500. In the two months before the end of May, the period covered in the preceding announcement, the losses averaged roughly about 2000 a day.

LOTTERIES CLOSED AGAIN

Celestials Believing the Coast Is Clear Open Games

Think Mistake Is Made When Police Shut Certain Places

The reopening of several of the Chinese lotteries and the prospective opening of others has caused a sensation in the Chinese section of Oakland and has resulted in wild rumors about the corridors of the city hall. Five or six of the places opened mysteriously last night, but were closed up later on by the police. The Chinese expressed great surprise when the police told them they could not open, but in a courteous manner expressed the view that the officers in the police department had not as yet received their new orders. The Chinese declared that they had been given to understand that everything had been arranged. It is known that great pressure has been brought to bear on Chief of Police Woods.

"I learn that several of the lottery houses had opened up," said Woods today. "I immediately gave orders to Captain Lynch to have them closed up. Those orders have been obeyed. I am not in favor of allowing the lotteries to reopen. So far as I know no change has been made in the original orders given me to keep them closed. Whatever my orders may be, I shall obey them."

CONFERS WITH JACKSON.

Woods later had a conference with Commissioner F. P. Jackson. He appeared to be disturbed, but made no comment on the subject of the conference.

The lotteries were closed immediately after Jackson took office, and in place of the usual raids there has been quiet in Chinatown. No arrests have been made in the past month and the courts are not receiving any new through fines and forfeitures. This is in contrast with custom. The lotteries have been allowed to run in certain districts in Oakland for the revenue obtained in fines and forfeitures, which went into the city treasury. In the first six months of 1915 over $25,000 was realized by the city from this source.

The Chinese companies have signified that they are willing to pay more than $25,000 if they are not subjected to raids and are permitted to pay this money over into the city treasury in lieu of "protection."

According to certain Chinese connected with the lottery companies, arrangements have been made through an Oakland attorney whereby each place shall pay a certain lump sum for the privilege of receiving the lottery. There were about thirty-four places running before the lotteries were closed, and on this basis if most of them reopen, it would realize for the year $50,000, or approximately what was paid into the city treasury last year through the courts.

LID-LIFTING RUMORED.

Chinese lotteries and gambling among white men were made the basis of a bitter campaign prior to election by Mayor Davis, in which he attacked W. J. Petersen, who was then chief of police. Francis J. Healy was brought into Oakland as one of the captains in the campaign. The reopening of some of the lottery houses created a stir that has recalled the allegations made in the pre-election campaign that the presence of Chinese lotteries were absolute "car-marks of graft." In carrying out the orders issued by Woods when some of the lotteries reopened last night, Corporal Coley arrested Sany Wong, a cook, 1782 Seventh street, on a charge of selling lottery tickets. He was released on $500 bail. The case went over this morning, but there is doubt as to whether the evidence in hand is sufficient for a conviction.

By Associated Press.
MONROE, Wis., Sept. 14.—Late reports smelt the damage resulting from the cloudburst in this section on Sunday, which cost the life of one man, drowned hundreds of thoroughbred cattle, destroyed two dams and a bridge at Monticello, marooned thousands in their homes at Albany, carried away two miles of Milwaukee track near that place and almost annihilated railroad traffic in this section for the past twenty-four hours.

The seventeen-car Milwaukee special leaving Monroe Sunday night loaded with race horses and concessions for the Wisconsin State Fair, was wrecked near Whitewater, one man being reported killed. Henry Geiger, 25 years old, a farmer near Monticello, is believed to have been drowned. The total damage from the cloudburst will run close to $250,000.

Thousands of dollars of damage at Treyle, Blanchardville and Wood-ford was the toll of high floodwaters of Pecatonica river, which Saturday reached the eighteen-foot stage, three feet higher than the former high water mark.

in other sectors which the Russians have gained in the last fort-night, however, causes the capital to regard the latest threat against it with no great alarm.

British opinion is that the Courland campaign not only is proving costly in men and supplies, but is likely to fail unless the Russian offensive on the other extreme of the long front can be stopped soon.

By their latest attack in Eastern Galicia, the Russians are reported to have penetrated Austro-German trenches in the face of an exceptionally heavy artillery fire. To the north, the Russians are withdrawing steadily from the dangerous Niemen salient, opposing the German advance merely by stubborn rear guard actions.

The tremendous duel of big guns still marks operations along the Belgian and French and Italian fronts. Except for occasional attempts to rush advanced trenches, there is little infantry activity on either side.

From the near east come reports that the Turks are firing villages on the Asiatic shore of the Dardanelles and it is suggested they are preparing to abandon the straits. It is also reported that the Turkish shore batteries on the Asiatic side of the straits have been almost reduced to silence.

order of Chief Woods, Captain Lynch found several of the places running wide open. He walked into one of the lottery houses and met the proprietor just inside. The Chinese greeted him with a smile.

"What do you mean?" asked

Lynch. "You can't run. Don't you know the police will come up here and break up your tables and take all your junk?"

"Oh, that's all right," responded the proprietor, smilingly. "We will get along."

Lynch ordered the place closed up and put a guard on the door. "Little Ernest," a well-known Chinese lottery man, called at the police station today to learn whether the new orders had been issued as yet. He was told that there had been no change, and went away smiling peacefully.

It is understood that if a deal has been made it has been with only a portion of the Chinese lottery companies, as some of them have refused to come in under the arrangement talked of. Those conversant with affairs in Chinatown are watching with interest to see whether there will be any discrimination as to making raids if the companies that have not entered into the agreement are kept closed by the police.

Mrs. Dumba will leave Lennox tomorrow for Washington, where she will remain about a week. Then she will return to the United States, New York and they will sail as soon as possible. Passage will be obtained on a Dutch or Norwegian steamer.

"I may say," said Dr. Dumba, "that I have sent this message to our minister of foreign affairs."

"This was a purely official message and now for the first time I authorize its publication. ## CONFERENCE ON PROSECUTION

WASHINGTON, Sept. 14.—United States District Attorney Marshall of New York, who will have direct charge of any proceedings taken against James E. J. Archibald, the American newspaperman detained abroad with Dr. Dumba's munitions, letter to the Austrian government, had a long conference today with Assistant Attorney-General Warren and to the extent that he told Marshall that when the department concludes its investigation it will forward the facts to his office and then decide whether there is ground for presentment to a federal grand jury.

Marshall denied that the conference concerned the possible detention of Archibald when he returns to the United States from Holland. Warren said that the case was discussed only to the extent that he told Marshall that when the department concludes its investigation it will forward the facts to his office and then decide whether there is ground for presentment to a federal grand jury.

Marshall's visit, officials said, was in connection with passport frauds which have been committed in recent months in New York.

BODIES OF MEXICANS FOUND

BROWNSVILLE, Texas, Sept. 14.—The bodies of three dead Mexicans were found today at various points in this section. Two bodies were found near Edinburg, 25 miles from the scene of yesterday's fight. The Mexicans had been shot.

The body of another Mexican today floated past Brownsville chained to the trunk of a tree.

There was no indication on any of the bodies as to whether the Mexicans had been victims of private vengeance. Texas Rangers have been working near Edinburg, but have made no report of encountering Mexicans.

It could not be learned whether the body of the Mexican chained to the tree in the river came from the Mexican or American side of the Rio Grande.

United States Immigration authorities have placed a partial embargo on the crossing of the river by Mexicans and are passing only such persons as can prove that they have legitimate business in Texas. The purpose admittedly was to stop bandits and numerous Mexicans with known police records in this state from continuing to cross at their pleasure to the American side.

LEDWIDGE RELEASED

EL PASO, Sept. 14.—Edward Ledwidge, an official of the Mexican Northwestern Railroad, who has been held for $10,000 ransom by bandits operating near the Cumbre tunnel in Chihuahua was released early today, according to information reaching here. A posse is pursuing the bandits.

Advisers received here did not state whether Ledwidge escaped from the bandits, was recovered on payment of the ransom or was rescued in a fight. Ledwidge was held by the Chavez brothers, bandits in Chihuahua.

The meager information indicated that Ledwidge had been shot alive to foreign residents of Chihuahua, last night and that the bandits declared he would be killed unless the ransom was forthcoming at 9 o'clock today. A special train carrying General Manuel Ochoa's troops and a party of Americans with the ransom money reached Chihuahua. It is believed here that the foreigners at Chihuahua announced the troops attacked the bandits and rescued Ledwidge.

STRIKES PLOTTED, LABOR LEADERS SAY

Alien Interests Suspected of Stirring Rancor With Offers.

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 14.—That alien interests endeavored to promote a strike of local longshoremen and thus hamper shipping operations to Europe, is the statement made by John Keane, who is vice-president of the International Longshoremen's Union, in charge of the Pacific jurisdiction.

Keane said: "I do not know that I frustrated the efforts of the Germans to bring about a strike of the longshoremen, but I do know that I was instrumental in getting the men to sign the new agreement with the shippers in opposition to certain influences that were strongly pro-German. This was most strongly evidenced at Seattle, where from the circumstances that presented themselves I was and am strongly of the opinion that German money was being offered the men and the members of the executive committee to prevent the execution of the new agreement and thus bring about a strike that would tie up all of the shipping on the Pacific and Atlantic."

BIG BENEFITS OFFERED.
"The men were given promise of large embezzlement and these promises were reasonably made through German agents. Of course I have no direct evidence, because I was concerned only in preventing trouble and not in bringing the trouble makers to account. When President O'Connor of the National Union was here, some time ago, from his home town in Buffalo, N. Y., he told me that German agents had made a direct offer to him if he could 'aid' in calling a strike of the longshoremen. 'Here in San Francisco German agents have been at work among the men, but their efforts went for naught because we managed to get the new agreement signed up before they could head us off. There is little chance of any trouble now.'"

GOMPERS BARES ATTEMPT.
WASHINGTON, Sept. 14.—Samuel Gompers, president of the American Federation of Labor, issued a statement last night confirming the story that efforts had been made by foreign governments to influence corruptly leaders of organized labor to start a strike among the longshoremen and seamen and in that way prevent the exportation of American products.

Gompers said he has known for some time of the facts published yesterday, and calls attention to an intimation in the statement in the letter to the secretary of the International Longshoremen's Union, in charge of the Pacific jurisdiction.

He said that, sooner or later, the country will learn with astonishment the extent to which the attempts were made to influence corruptly labor organizations to tie up the commerce of the country.

Persia in Throes of Anarchy; Women Flee

LONDON, Sept. 14.—Anarchy prevails in Persia, according to the Teheran correspondent of the Reuter Telegraph. The government military forces have been defeated in a series of engagements with tribesmen and a number of Swedish officers who were in the company have been killed. The British and Russian colonies at Isfahan with French and British women missionaries have been forced to leave for Teheran. Isfahan is said to be controlled by a mob.

John D. Spreckels to Take Bride Thursday

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 14.—John D. Spreckels Jr. announced this morning that he and Miss Mild Wirt would be married Thursday. Spreckels said that the ceremony would be held in the home he has taken for his bride at Laguna street and Pacific avenue. Relatives and one or two friends will be present at the ceremony.

Miss Wirt is a great beauty and has been engaged to Spreckels for a year. She and the young millionaire met in San Francisco, where Miss Wirt was studying singing. She has a fine soprano voice, and during the past six or seven months she has been studying in New York with the possibility of entering upon a professional career. Two months ago she came to San Francisco and took a house with her sister, Mrs. Seward Griggs of Seattle, and her little son, at 1111 Green street.

Miss Wirt has attracted a great deal of attention in the city on account of her beauty, which is the slender, flower-like blonde type with large blue eyes and skin of slightly olive tinge, which she says is due to her Egyptian ancestry. Her grandmother was a native of Egypt.

Dr. Sarah Ledford Freed of Contempt Charge

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 14.—The contempt citation against Dr. Sarah J. Ledford, sponsor for Louise J. Thompson, a claimant in the estate of John M. Keith, the millionaire oil magnate of Bakersfield, was dismissed before Judge Crocker this morning. At the same time the woman's battery of attorneys, including the firm of Peck, Bunker & Cole of Oakland and Russell & John Tyler of this city, announced their withdrawal from the case. This move on the part of the lawyers, which was a development during the court proceedings, caused a mild sensation, and it is believed it marks the stopping of hostilities on the part of Miss Thompson and Dr. Ledford. The citation was dismissed when Dr. Ledford agreed to give her deposition tomorrow in connection with the case of Louise J. Thompson, the daughter of Keith and was born in Alaska. The attorneys will remain in the case until after the deposition has been taken.

"Judge-Made Law Is the Best," Says Taft

STANFORD UNIVERSITY, Sept. 14.—William H. Taft, speaking to 4000 Stanford students and pennsylvania residents on the Stanford football field today, told them that judge-made law is the best. He was talking from notes on "World Relations" and advocating international courts. "The United States as a neutral," said the former President, "is closer to this war than it ever has been to any war. As a neutral, it has a right to be consulted by belligerent nations before outrages are committed. I think the war will last at least two years more, but no one can tell. There is little chance that we will get into it." He presented his peace plan of international courts and conciliation and invited defense of attacked countries. He failed to apply this statement on judge-made law to democratic legislation, but likewise failed to make the exception.

Mechanic Fatally Hurt at Spokane Race Meet

SPOKANE, Wash., Sept. 14.—R. L. Williams, a mechanic riding with Oral Palmer, was probably fatally injured here yesterday when Palmer's car plunged through a fence. The accident was the first of two which occurred at the opening day's motor races held in connection with the Interstate Fair. Neither of the occupants of another racing car which went through the fence was hurt.

POST-EXPOSITION PLANS TO BE DINNER SUBJECT

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 14.—"After the Exposition—What?" will be discussed at a dinner and meeting in the Fairmont Hotel Monday evening, September 20, under the auspices of the executive committee of the California Development Board. The speakers for this dinner will include Wm. J. Dutton, President California Development Board; R. B. Hale, Senator James D. Phelan, Robert Newton Lynch, Chester H. Rowell, Lawrence Harris and others. These speakers will discuss from a state-wide point of view how to realize on the Exposition and the Canal, and also practical plans for effective co-operation to secure better markets, better colonization methods, rural credit, good roads, how to standardize productive land values and the securing of complete, reliable information from every county in the State. It is the purpose of the California Development Board to lead in such phases of work as are state-wide and not undertaken by other organizations and to co-operate with existing organizations.

ARSON CASE SET FOR HEARING NEXT WEEK

Charles L. and Mrs. Jennie Burright were arraigned today before Judge Mortimer Smith on a joint charge of arson. The case was set for preliminary examination September 23. Burright and his wife were arrested last spring on charges of obtaining property under false pretenses. They had been arrested in San Jose and were alleged by the Oakland police to have obtained furniture on part payments, and to have transported the furniture to San Jose without the right to do so. The case was dismissed. At that time the police alleged that the couple was implicated in an arson plot in which two houses in Oakland had been burned. A third member of the alleged arson gang had been captured, the police say, in the North, and will be brought to Oakland.

Railroads of Belgium Are Removed to Poland

HAVRE, France, Sept. 14.—The Belgian government has protested to neutral states against the action of the German administration in tearing up and transporting to Poland the tracks of the Belgian railroads. The protest is based on an article of the fourth Hague convention, which stipulates that the occupation of invaded territory shall consist only of an occupation de facto. Removal of the railroads, the protest contends, will make much more difficult the transportation of business by a large portion of the population of Belgium.

American Relief Ship to Belgium, Ashore

LONDON, Sept. 14, 1 p. m.—A steamship trying the signals of the American committee for the relief of Belgium has gone ashore. Four members of her crew are missing. This is the steamship which was reported yesterday to have been sunk.

Slav War Minister Hopeful for Victory

LONDON, Sept. 14.—"Since General Polivanoff, minister of war, reviewed the position of the Russian armies a fortnight ago," telegraphs the Petrograd correspondent of the Times "no single event has occurred which can be construed as an advantage to the invaders. Nowhere have they inflicted either a tactical or strategic blow calculated to alter the military situation in their favor. General Polivanoff is satisfied the increase in supplies of rifles and ammunition is being well maintained, and that the Russian armies are in the position strong enough to view the future with confidence."

PRISONERS ON STEAMER.

NEW YORK, Sept. 14.—Captains F. W. Coleman and J. W. Meehan and Lieutenant J. A. Hoag and thirty-nine military prisoners, all soldiers charged with minor offenses, were among the passengers who arrived today on the steamer Cristobal from Cienfuegos.

Myers Trial Depends on Miss Bendegarde

Miss Agnes Bendegarde, who left last week for Oregon City to get possession of her 5-year-old son, Gerald Warner, who disappeared from Oakland last January and whom it was alleged Joseph S. Myers, a wealthy real estate man of this city, had kidnapped, is expected to return to her home at 922 F. Street late today or tomorrow.

Myers was tried a month ago on a charge of kidnapping. The jury failed to reach a verdict, and a second trial was set for October 4. District Attorney Hynes stated yesterday that he could not say whether the trial would proceed in view of the new developments without knowing the full particulars. In event Miss Bendegarde withdraws her complaint, the prosecution would be handicapped in a second trial. The mother of the child has maintained throughout that all she desired was to get him back again, and that otherwise she did not care to prosecute Myers.

Relatives of Miss Bendegarde said today that beyond receiving a telegram from her two days ago stating that everything was "all right," they have not heard further.

No Sign of Relief for South From Heat

WASHINGTON, Sept. 14.—No relief from the excessive heat which has gripped the East and South since the middle of last week is promised by the weather bureau during the next thirty-six hours. Unseasonable cool weather prevails in the West and temperatures at or below the freezing point are reported from many points in the Rocky Mountain and plateau regions.

CHICAGO SWELTERS.

CHICAGO, Sept. 14.—The thermometer here registered 84 degrees. This is exceptional as marking the first hot spell of the year in Chicago. All summer the city waited for the usual hot period but the heat never became oppressive and never lasted more than a day without rain or cold. Today was the third consecutive warm day and this is said to establish the season's record.

from her two days ago stating that everything was "all right," they have not heard further.

At Less Cost—

There's more nutritive value that the system will absorb in Grape-Nuts than in either meat or bread.

A remarkable fact.

Weight for weight, a package of Grape-Nuts supplies one-third more nourishment than a roast of beef and at about half the cost. A roast of beef is about twenty per cent waste and there is a shrinkage in cooking. Grape-Nuts comes ready cooked—and not a crumb need be wasted.

Think it over!

Then there's bread—white bread lacks certain elements essential to building brain and body. Why? Because in milling white flour, four-fifths of the precious mineral content (all important for health and life) is thrown out with the brancoat of wheat, to make the flour white and pretty.

Grape-Nuts FOOD

not only supplies all the brain and bone-building, nerve and muscle-making phosphates of the wheat, but all the rich nutriment of malted barley.

Besides, Grape-Nuts is easily digested—generally in about an hour—white bread and beef require about 2½ hours.

Grape-Nuts comes in germ-proof, moisture-proof packages—ready to serve with cream or milk—a delicious ration, economical and highly nourishing.

SAN LEANDRO MAYOR ALSO RESIGNS

Charges Could Be Brought Against Most Municipal Officers, Says Gill.

SAN LEANDRO, Sept. 14.—Charges brought by the grand jury against the members of the board of town trustees and which have caused all of them but one to resign could be laid at the door of most of the municipal officers in the state of California, according to Mayor J. J. Gill whose resignation last evening it is said will be followed by other events of moment in local municipal affairs.

"The charges made against me are technical. This thing would be too expensive to fight. The office pays nothing anyway and I would rather withdraw," said Gill.

Mayor Gill, along with other officials, is charged with letting contracts to others than the lowest bidder and with buying town supplies from members of their own body.

With the resignation of Mayor Gill from office last night, following similar action taken by three of his colleagues, the question is being asked, will the grand jury investigation into the municipality's affairs result in every one of the city fathers quitting office? Only one of the original five trustees, H. L. Reichrath now remains on the board. As the different members of the board have been cited to appear for trial on the charge of malfeasance in office, they have all elected to resign instead, thus saving themselves the necessity of coming before the court to defend their right to retain office.

Mayor Gill's trial was set for tomorrow but will not take place on account of his resignation. That of Trustee Reichrath is due September 25. Will Reichrath follow the example of the other trustees and resign rather than stand the expense and annoyance of a trial, is being asked. So far he has not said anything of his intention.

Mayor Gill submitted the following letter of resignation last night:

I hereby resign my office, I have been a member of the board of trustees for seven years and during that time I have endeavored to administer the affairs of government in a conscientious manner and according to the best of my ability. For these services I have received absolutely no compensation and expected none. The office is an entirely honorary one.

The grand jury of this county in its wisdom has filed charges against me for alleged misconduct in office. It is now well known what the nature of these charges are and that they are technical and could be brought against most of the municipal officers in the state of California. The hearing of these charges was set for September 15.

I defend myself from such charges in order to retain my office would entail considerable expense and annoyance and notoriety which I feel I do not deserve. Therefore, I deem it best and wise to surrender up my office.

Mayor Gill also pledges his assistance in public work whenever it is asked.

RAILWAY EMPLOYEES' BUREAU.
By Associated Press.
ROCHESTER, N. Y., Sept. 14.—The Amalgamated Association of Street and Electric Railway Employees, in fourteen biennial session here, began today consideration of the serious work of the convention. Looming large is the question of compulsory arbitration provided for in the constitution, a certain faction desiring the repeal of the clause.

Today's Beauty Helps

Nothing excites more criticism than a woman with her face all daubed with face powder in her desire to hide faulty complexion. Instead of using powder, which clogs and enlarges the pores, it is far better to use a good face lotion that will improve and permanently benefit the skin. By dissolving four ounces of spumax in a half pint of hot water you can make an inexpensive lotion that will do wonders for a skin whiter and complexion beautified. It removes all shininess, sallowness and roughness, and gives the skin a smooth, velvety tone, while it does not rub off easily like powder, nor does it show on the skin. By washing the face with a teaspoonful of camphor dissolved in a cup of hot water, afterward rinsing thoroughly with clear water, one finds that it dries quickly and evenly, is unstreaked, bright, soft and very fluffy, so fluffy, in fact, that it looks more abundant than it is and so soft that arranging it becomes a pleasure. This simple, inexpensive shampoo cleanses the hair and scalp thoroughly of all dandruff and dirt, and leaves a clean, wholesome feeling. All scalp irritation will disappear and the hair will be brighter and glossier than ever before. Advertisement.

Arrest Detective in Colo. Military Probe
By Associated Press.

DENVER, Sept. 14.—R. W. Coates, a detective, employed by the United Mine Workers of America, today was forcibly arrested on a body attachment issued by the military court of inquiry investigating charges against national guard officers.

Coates was arrested in the lobby of a hotel. When officers of the court prepared to take him to the state house, C. E. Friend, his attorney, started on a motorcycle for the West Side Court to ask for a writ of habeas corpus for his release.

CLAIMS TWO MEN HELD HIM UP; WATCH TAKEN

Related report was made to the police last night by Gino Giuntoli of 248 McAdams street, that he was held up and robbed Sunday night at Broadway and McAdams street. Giuntoli explained that he had been held up by two men, one with a revolver and the other with a flash light. They obtained a watch and some small change.

Other thefts were reported as follows: Mrs. B. Hoffman, 3236 Gray street, $40 stolen from bureau.

Mrs. Ray Coppe, 1415 Sixth street, Alameda, household goods stolen from premises at 918 Filbert street.

Mrs. James Vennart, 951 Fifty-sixth street, bed clothes stolen by a night lodger.

PASTOR LEAVES CHURCH FOR YEAR'S VACATION

A farewell reception was tendered last evening to Rev. Henry J. Winsor on the occasion of his being granted a year's leave of absence from ministerial duties after occupying the pulpit of the Eighth Avenue Methodist Episcopal Church for the last four years. The various religious organizations in the parish joined in honoring the pastor.

The reception consisted of a musical and literary program, augmented by speeches of farewell and the presentation of a purse. Rev. Winsor will spend a portion of his vacation on his ranch in Mendocino county.

Her husband is employed in this city.

Comes From Wilds to Be "Finished"

Little Miss Betty Mason, who is a niece of Mrs. W. W. Garthwaite and Mrs. W. Mathieu of Oakland, has come from her home in the wilds of the Sierra Nevada "finished" as a fashionable school in Palo Alto. She is a bright, unusual child whose life has been spent in the mountains, where her playmates have been the wild things of the woods.

Betty is the friend of lizards and squirrels, and has several snakes among her pets of which she is very fond. When she arrived at the seminary in Palo Alto she was accompanied by a lizard and two turtles that had been her constant companions at home and that she found it impossible to leave behind.

She is the daughter of a railroad man stationed at Crystal Lake, near the summit of the Sierras, where no other family lives. Betty, who is 12 years old, has known no other children and has never been to school. Her mother has directed her education and she is well up in arithmetic, geography, history and spelling, but principally in the lore of the wild, which men like John Muir make a life study and few small girls know anything about.

GRAND LARCENY CHARGE FOR "BORROWING" AUTO

James Lee, 625 Thirty-second street, formerly a jitney bus driver, and George Smith, 1397 Fifty-fifth street, companions of Miss Dorothy Moore of San Francisco, who was injured early yesterday morning in an automobile accident, were arraigned today before Judge Mortimer Smith on a charge of grand larceny. It is alleged that the automobile in which the merry party of three was coming into Oakland from the road houses north of this city had been stolen from the garage of Gustaf Epsen, 1047 Forty-eighth street. A new rule has been promulgated by the Oakland police department that all "borrowers of automobiles" intent upon taking joy rides shall be charged with grand larceny.

POLICE ARE FORBIDDEN TO ACCEPT REWARDS

Assistant City Attorney W. H. O'Brien today filed with Commissioner F. E. Jackson a formal opinion that it will be impossible for police officers to accept rewards for making important captures, or for recovering stolen goods. Dr. Jackson has decided that it is a custom in the Oakland police department, when a reward was won by a member of the Oakland department, to turn the money in to the police pension and relief fund. He asked if it could not be given to the individual making the capture. Colonel O'Brien explained that Section 32 of the charter specially forbids any employee of the city receiving any emolument, compensation or reward other than that provided for him by the city.

Boston Herald Sold to $1,800,000 Bidder
By Associated Press.

BOSTON, Mass., Sept. 14.—The property of the Boston Herald, Inc., publishers of the Boston Herald and the Boston Traveler, was sold at auction for $1,800,000 today to D. F. De J. Sullivan of New York, representing Morton F. Plant and other holders of securities of the Boston Herald, Inc.

Several weeks ago advertisements in the newspapers announced that the property would be sold because of the default of payment of interest on the bonds.

Mr. Sullivan acquired the property for the Boston Publishing Company, a corporation organized by him and his associates to continue the publication of the papers. Robert L. Byram, who was elected president, will remain in direction of the editorial and news policy of the papers. The operating staff will be unchanged.

LAKE RIDE TO CLOSE LEAGUE CONFERENCE

Nearly 700 members of the Alameda County Epworth League will gather for an all fresco conference late this afternoon and evening in Lakeside Park. The convention will open at 4 o'clock with a Junior League rally led by Mrs. Lily Ono, county president of Junior work.

Following a social hour at 5:15 o'clock and a dinner at 6 o'clock, the general meeting will be called at 7:30 o'clock by Harry Hollidge, president of the conference and a prominent member of the congregation at the First Methodist Church of Oakland. Rev. William L. Steiger will be the speaker of the evening.

A boat ride on Lake Merritt will conclude the evening. Many of the leading Methodist divines and church workers in the east bay cities will attend.

CLUB DIRECTORS TO MEET

The board of directors of the Alameda County Jefferson Club will meet tonight for the purpose of taking action in reference to the non-partisan bill and other matters. The directors will gather at dinner at the Saddle Rock Cafe at 6:30 and will convene in business session at the headquarters in the Union Savings Bank building at 8 o'clock. First day tomorrow, Wednesday. Tremendous bargains! Come early!

HALE TO CLOSE OUT BUSINESS

Great Retiring Sale Will Begin Tomorrow; Prices on Stock Slashed.

Hale Bros. announce that tomorrow will be the opening day of their great closing out sale. This firm recently made public its decision to retire from the Oakland mercantile field and to dispose of its entire stock as soon as possible.

W. R. Whitthorne, manager of Hale Bros.' Oakland interests, states that this will be the greatest merchandise event in Oakland's history.

"There will be no dilly-dallying about this sale," said Mr. Whitthorne today. "Orders from the executives of this business are to the effect that our entire stock is to be sold as quickly as it is possible to sell out an entire store. I have been given carte blanche regarding reductions and I assure you that never before has merchandise of high, dependable quality been sold in this city at low prices as our goods will be marked.

"This will really be a rare occasion for Oakland women, because in the sale will be included all our new autumn lines. Goods ordered months ago and arriving daily will be marked at closing out prices. The decision to close out came too late to cancel orders for merchandise for fall and winter, consequently these goods, too, must go as quickly as staple lines. Hale's closing out prices will dispose of the merchandise in short order. So many lines stand out as unprecedented bargains that for the time being we cannot advertise special goods or their prices. A visit to the store will reward every one. We have been compelled to keep the store closed Monday and Tuesday to make final preparations. All is now ready for the opening gun tomorrow. The bargain surprises in store for Alameda county housewives will create a buying furor."

LAND LABOR LAW UP IN SUPREME COURT

By Associated Press.
WASHINGTON, Sept. 14.—Attorney General Jones of Arizona yesterday opened the fight in the supreme court over the constitutionality of the Arizona land labor law by filing a brief in support of the statute. "The Arizona law makes it a crime for an employer of more than five workmen to employ less than per cent qualified electors or native born citizens. The case will be heard by the court next month. A lower court held it unconstitutional."

Miss Alma Robinson Rides
Safely Over Rio de Pam-panga on Beast's Back.

ALAMEDA, Sept. 14.—Standing on the back of a carabao, the Philippine water buffalo, Miss Alma Robinson, an Alameda society girl, crossed the Rio de Pampanga, and was ferried safely over without getting even her feet wet in the of the man's thrilling adventure, which she enjoyed during her five months' trip to the islands.

Miss Robinson returned on the liner Siberia, in company with Mr. and Mrs. C. T. Truett, of New York, where Truett is an official of the Standard Oil company.

The carabao ferry was the result of a terrific storm, which carried away all the bridges, while Miss Robinson with her friends were attending a dance at Camp Stotsenberg, an army post.

Miss Robinson was the guest of Lieutenant and Mrs. J. V. Truett of the Infantry, stationed at Manila.

An impromptu wedding was another of the novel sights which Miss Robinson saw on her trip to the interior.

"Truett" laughed Miss Robinson, when she recalled the wedding of the natives. "It was all provided by nature. Their daughter's trousseau certainly is the least of the worries of an Igorrote mamma and papa."

Miss Robinson also climbed Mt. Maricao, one of the famous peaks of that part of the islands.

A "Sweeping" Statement

The poet who wrote "O woman, in thy hours of ease," surely had a vision of the Hoover Suction Sweeper in action.

The Hoover Suction Sweeper makes housekeeping a delight. Here is a portable cleaner that actually cleans, and makes no fuss about it. It removes not only dust and dirt, but also sand and grit, clinging hair, thread, lint and litter.

By attaching special nozzle tools, the Hoover is made to clean window curtains, tapestries, bedding, wall coverings and automobile upholstery.

The Hoover sweeps, shakes and sucks the dirt and dust loose from its moorings, sweeping into the dustbin of Father Time the trials and troubles of the harried housekeeper.

You can buy the Hoover for only $12.50 a week. A phone will bring our free Demonstrator to your home.

RURAL CREDIT COMMISSION NAMED

Irrigation Congress Hears Announcement of Body Created by Governor.

STOCKTON, Cal., Sept. 14.—Irrigation projects in actual operation occupied the attention of delegates to the International Irrigation Congress, which opened its twenty-second convention in Stockton Sunday and is to hold sessions this week in Fresno and Sacramento and the closing meeting at San Francisco on Monday. Because of these sightseeing trips and the fact that the convention is to assemble in four California cities the meeting is known as the "congress on wheels."

The delegates left Stockton early yesterday in automobiles to inspect irrigation projects in the Oakdale and south San Joaquin districts. These two districts have more than 140,000 acres. A visit will be made to the Goodwin dam, near Knights Ferry, the source of supply for the Oakdale and south San Joaquin districts. The irrigators will cover about 100 miles on this trip. The delegates will also visit projects in the northern part of San Joaquin county and, among other places of interest, will inspect the Woodbridge irrigation district, a private enterprise. On still another tour other delegates are to visit the Modesto and Turlock districts.

RURAL CREDIT COMMISSION.

Much interest was displayed by the delegates in the announcement made by Harris Weinstock, member of the industrial accident commission of California, of the appointment of a commission on rural credits, the commission having been authorized by the last session of the California Legislature. The fifth member of the commission is to be named within a few days, Weinstock said, speaking for Governor Johnson.

The commissioners announced by Weinstock upon authorization by the governor follow: Elwood Mead, professor of rural institutions at the University of California; Dr. David P. Barrows, dean of the University of California; Senator W. E. Brown of Los Angeles and Harris Weinstock of San Francisco.

State activity should supplement federal legislation for rural credits, Weinstock told the delegates. He also advocated a state colonization system.

WITHIN STATES PROVINCE.

"It is entirely within the province of the great commonwealth of California not only to establish a system of state rural credits, such as prevails on the continent of Europe, but also a system of state colonization such as has been successfully established in Ireland and in Australia," he said. "That is, a system of rural credits to aid those already owning farms who desire to borrow money at the world's lowest rate of interest with long time in which to make repayments, and a system also permitting the state to buy desirable bodies of land at their actual value, to be sold as is done in Ireland and Australia, by the state to selected colonists, preferably land tenants and farm laborers, at cost, with small

"Old Glory" Hauled Down From Korea

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 14.—Touching and simple were the ceremonies at the Union Iron Works yesterday noon when the Pacific Mail house flag was hauled down from the liner Korea and the flag of the Atlantic Transport Company hoisted in its stead.

Grouped on the deck were R. P. Scherwin, vice-president and general manager of the Pacific Mail Company; William Chisholm, port superintendent, and W. E. Yeary, port steward of the line, and for the new owners James Carnegie, chief engineer; W. J. Love, assistant freight and traffic manager, and T. J. Larso, assistant general passenger agent of the International Mercantile Marine.

The Korea returned to the Mail dock today and started loading for Europe tomorrow.

Automobiles Help Horseshoe Business

CLEVELAND, Sept. 14.—Delegates to the convention of the Master Horseshoers National Protective Association, in session here today, declared that the hard pavements used on automobile roads was helping their business. They say a horse's shoes now wear only one-fourth as long as formerly.

Secretary of Aviation, New Cabinet Place

PARIS, 3:40 p. m., Sept. 14.—The cabinet decided today to create an under-secretariat of state for aviation and aeronautics. The new post was given to Rene Benard, a Benard previously has served as minister of labor, minister of colonies and under-secretary of finance.

QUARREL OVER INVENTION. MacPherson Purcell was arraigned today on a charge of threats against life preferred by Pierce Porter, a son of W. L. Porter, 618 Moraga avenue, as a result of a controversy between the two over shares of stock in a newly-patented burner in which both are interested. Purcell had been lodging at the Porter home. The case was set today for examination September 22.

payments down and with deferred payments for the balance spread over a long term of years at the same rate of interest on the deferred payments as is paid by the state itself.

NOT PATERNALISM.

Elwood Mead, professor of rural institutions at the University of California, told delegates to the congress that rural credits—that is, the extension of credit by the state to settlers in the form of long-time loans—is "no more paternalism than the homestead act, or river and harbor improvements, or the postal service." One dollar in every two now spent in efforts at private development of irrigated lands is wasted, he said, and three-fourths of the many failures would be averted if settlers could secure an adequate equipment for stocking and cultivating their farms, which, he said, could be provided by rural credits and by state aid in the reclamation of government lands.

To permit the poor man to settle on unimproved arid land, he pronounced "neither honest nor humane," and of the luring of homesteaders to such lands, he said, "probably nothing has ever surpassed the wide range of activities, the fertility of imagination and the utter lack of any sense of responsibility on the part of those who sold the land." Last night was devoted to the discussion of irrigation districts. The delegates left Stockton early today by special train for Fresno, where sessions will be held Wednesday afternoon and Thursday. The congress meets in Sacramento Friday and Saturday.

DOLLAR DAY WILL BE THRIFT EPOCH

Bargain Seekers Will Revel in Values Offered by Oakland Merchants.

Dollar Day is almost at hand; tomorrow is the day of bargains in Oakland when thousands of thrifty householders from city and county will get the "best ever" for each dollar in Oakland's stores. The high cost of living bugaboo will be dispelled and tomorrow the dollar will go further than will $1.50 and $2 on ordinary days. There is no excuse for any of the tens of thousands of bargain-seekers neglecting the opportunity. Thousands are already leaving the inscription, "Dollar Day, Oakland, September 15," have been distributed broadcast throughout the county.

Never before Oakland merchants promise will the dollar have realized its full purchasing value as it will on Dollar Day. Prices on high quality goods will be slashed down to within the narrowest limits. All the public needs to do is to map out a purchasing program and then go ahead and visit all the stores bearing Dollar Day signs.

It will pay every resident of the outlying districts to trade in Oakland tomorrow. Traveling expenses will be offset by the reduced prices.

The benefit from Dollar Day will be two-fold. Besides furnishing unprecedented bargains for the public, it will bring new customers to the merchants, since many will visit the stores apart from the regular customers.

WRITERS' CLUB TO OPEN SEASON WITH BANQUET

The local literary organization as the California Writers' Club will celebrate the coming of the autumn season this evening with an elaborate banquet at Hotel Oakland, at which many guests will be in attendance. The guest of honor and speaker is to be Kenneth C. Beaton, a well-known writer and publisher, who will deliver a paper on "The Future of the Novel." Dr. William Morgan, president of the club, is to preside.

Songs rendered by Earl Little, baritone, are to be another feature of the program. A number of scribes from other localities are to be in evidence, including E. M. C. Brown, Mrs. Daniel L. Lorch, author of "The Five Little Peppers" series, and Mrs. Winifred Black.

The reception committee includes the following: Mrs. Hester A. Dickinson, Mrs. William S. Morgan, Mrs. Esther E. Darling, Mrs. Dr. Le. Plane, Mrs. G. C. Grimsby, Mrs. A. W. Brantley, Miss Jean Melkie, Mrs. K. M. Place, Mrs. W. H. Wadsworth, Mrs. Arthur Weiss, Mrs. Margaret Tietzen, Mrs. Lucy Senger, Miss Jean Macmillan, Mrs. C. E. Lorch, and Mrs. Elsie E. Osgood, chairman.

MARGARET ANGLIN TO PLAY IN SAN FRANCISCO

After a season of unparalleled success in the classic Greek drama at the Greek theater, Berkeley, Margaret Anglin began her regular season last night at the Columbia theater, in San Francisco, in her New York and Chicago comedy success, "Beverly's Balance."

Miss Anglin's engagement in San Francisco will constitute her on-stage appearance in the Kester play hereabouts, as her bookings demand her at a number of eastern theaters within the next two months. It is interesting to note that San Francisco is the third of metropolitan cities of the country in which Miss Anglin will be seen in Paul Kester's latest, and from all accounts, most successful play. As a rule the Pacific coast patrons of the theater see a play a year or so after it has been revealed in New York. Not so in this instance, for "Beverly's Balance" has been shown twice in eastern cities previous to its presentation here on Monday night. Miss Anglin will not appear in Oakland.

SETTLEMENT PUPILS TO GIVE BENEFIT CONCERT

The annual benefit concert for the Oakland Social Settlement music school will be given on the evening of September 23, at the Hotel Oakland, under the management of Mrs. Lillian Wagner Collins. ### HERE IS A FAN WORTH $15,000

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 14.—Having in her possession one of the most valuable fans in the world, valued at $15,000 and a present from the late Empress Dowager of Japan, Mrs. Charles Burnett, wife of Lieutenant Burnett, United States Army, arrived home from a trip to the Orient yesterday on the Siberia.

Mrs. Burnett is one of the most noted Japanese scholars in the world. She has translated many of the Japanese poems and prose works, and it was because of translations done for the Empress that she received the fan. She was accompanied home by her sister, Mrs. A. S. Hanlon.

SLASHED WITH KNIFE.

Louis Linder was arrested last night by Corporal Smith and Patrolmen Gushie and Phillips at Tenth and Broadway as he is believed to be the man who attacked Charles F. Mars, 456 Eighth street, with a pocket knife. The knife cut a slash in Mars' clothing but inflicted no bodily injury. Linder is being held for investigation.

HUMORISTS AT LEAGUE.

Prominent writers of the bay section are to speak before the Men's League of Plymouth Church, Oakland, this evening. The humor of life as they see it will be told by Herbert Bashford, author and playwright; President Allen T. Baum of the Pacific Coast Baseball League, and Fred W. Schaefer, Berkeley poet and raconteur.

ROLPH PURGED OF CONTEMPT CHARGE

Judge Crothers Dismisses Action Against Defendants Excepting Cashion.

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 14.—Mayor James Rolph Jr., Superintendent of Public Works, and Commissioner Daniel Fraser and Adolph J. Judd, were purged of the charges of contempt of court and the case against them dismissed by Superior Judge Crothers today in connection with the suit of the United Railroads against the city, involving the use by certain municipal cars of the lower Market street tracks.

CASHION HELD. Superintendent Thomas A. Cashion of the Municipal Railway was held for trial by the court, it being the opinion of Judge Crothers that he alone of the five was responsible to a sufficient extent to have charges lodged against him.

The court based its decision upon the fact that neither the original complaint or its amendment had been served upon the mayor and the president and commissioners of the Board of Public Works. He held that the injunction was a mandatory one and that never in the history of American jurisprudence had a city official been found guilty of contempt when he was not a direct party to the suit. Judge Crothers thus took into consideration the fact that only one of those accused who could be called a party to the action.

MAYOR VINDICATED.

Mayor Rolph characterized the decision as a vindication of his attitude in the dispute involving the city in litigation with the United Railroads. Today's decision allows only to the complaint of the United Railroads and not to a separate complaint of the Sutter Street Railway Company, a subsidiary corporation. The motion to dismiss was made by Judge Matt Sullivan, representing the United Railroads. But even before the decision was rendered, the motion to dismiss was made by Judge Matt Sullivan, representing the United Railroads. But even before the decision was rendered, the motion to dismiss was made by Judge Matt Sullivan, representing the United Railroads.

FIVE STARS SCORE IN "THE NEW HENRIETTA"

The "five-star aggregation" consisting of William H. Crane, Thomas W. Ross, Maelyn Arbuckle, Laura Hope Crews and Michel Taliaferro on Monday night, San Francisco through the medium of "The New Henrietta." The organization opened to a capacity house last Monday at the Cort Theater and has kept up the pace since.

It seems remarkable that a play that was in the heyday of its success twenty years ago should create such an impression in these cynical times. But "The New Henrietta" is a comedy-drama, as revamped by Winchell Smith and Victor Mapes, is just as bright and clean and wholesome and compelling as it was a score of years ago. No story of American life prepared for the stage has so deftly and attractively fulfilled its mission as "The Henrietta."

The leading roles are rich with opportunity for the highest type of acting. Rendered by this all-star cast, make for an absolutely flawless and wholly delightful performance. "The New Henrietta" begins the second week of its engagement at the Cort Monday night, September 13. Performances are given on Sunday nights.

BENCH WARRANT FOR "RESURRECTED" MAN

Fred Compton of Hayward, who two months ago was placed under arrest after it was thought by his wife and insurance company that he had been drowned in the Merced river, will have to answer in the superior court on a charge of failure to provide a bench warrant was issued for Compton today by Superior Judge W. M. Conley upon the presentation that he had failed to pay his wife $25 per month as agreed upon when he was released from custody. Compton had been employed at Concord, Contra Costa county.

GALLUR TRIAL SET ON CHARGE OF MURDER

Damascus Gallur, who shot and killed Augustus Hotchkiss, an aged money lender, last July, today entered a plea of not guilty before Superior Judge W. M. Conley, and the court set the date for his trial on November 1. The defendant also admitted a prior conviction, having served time in San Quentin for passing a fictitious check some time ago. Attorney William S. Cox will appear for Gallur in his defense, as Attorney Francis St. J. Fox, who represented him at the police court hearing, will withdraw from the case.

MYSTERIOUS FIRE DESTROYS STORES

Blaze in Hayward Business Section Does Damage Aggregating $3000.

HAYWARD, Sept. 14.—A fire of mysterious origin breaking out at 7 o'clock this morning in a building in the center of town caused about $3000 damage and came near involving in destruction the central business blocks. Early discovery of the blaze by A. Varin, a municipal employee and prompt response of the fire department prevented what would probably have been one of the most serious conflagrations in the history of the town. Sparks from the blazing stores, three of which were practically destroyed, set on fire surrounding wooden buildings and only the strenuous efforts of the firemen saved an alarming situation.

The places most damaged by the fire are the Milton candy store, and the Palace restaurant and grill, situated in the E. K. Nissen building and the Call saloon, in an adjoining building, occupied by John Eise in a store in the rear of which the fire is thought to have originated. Mrs. M. Silva is owner of this building, which suffered the least damage.

Bursting through the doorway at the rear of the saloon, the flames spread rapidly to the premises occupied by the candy store and restaurant, which were soon in flames. A strong wind carried the fire in this direction and the efforts of the firemen were directed to preventing other wooden buildings from catching fire. In this they were successful although the two stores in the Nissen building were gutted.

The authorities are investigating the origin of the fire. There was no stove or lamp in the store at the rear of the saloon and it is surmised that crossed wires may have been the cause. The damage is largely covered by insurance.

Thin People Can Increase Weight

Thin men and women who would like to increase their weight with 10 or 15 pounds of healthy "meat" should try eating a little Sargol with their meals for a while and note results. Here is a good test worth trying. First weigh yourself and measure yourself. Then take Sargol—one tablet with every meal—for two weeks. Then weigh and measure again. It isn't a question of how you look or feel or what your friends say and think. The scales and the tape measure will tell their own story, and many thin men and women we believe can easily add from five to eight pounds in the first fourteen days by following this simple direction. And best of all, the new flesh stays put.

Sargol does not of itself make fat, but mixing with your food, it aims to turn the fats, sugars and starches of what you have eaten, into rich, ripe, fat producing nourishment for the tissues and blood—prepare it in an easily assimilated form which the blood can readily accept. Much of this nourishment now passes from your body as waste. But Sargol works to stop the waste and do it quickly and to make the fat producing contents of the very same meals you are eating now develop pounds and pounds of healthy flesh between your skin and bones. Sargol is safe, pleasant, efficient and inexpensive. Osgood Bros. drug stores and other leading druggists in this vicinity sell it in large boxes—forty tablets to a package—on a guarantee of weight increase or money back as found in each large box. U. S. to Be Supplied With 365 Batteries
By Associated Press.
NEW YORK, Sept. 14.—Thomas A. Edison Inc. has just closed a contract to supply 365 military batteries to the United States government for use on batteries, according to a statement made by M. E. Haddock, assistant general manager of the Edison Electric Co., New York. The batteries are similar to those sold by Mr. Edison to the government for submarines.

The batteries that flow a high current on a battery is one of the most important parts of a battleship's equipment," Mr. Haddock said. "The call for such batteries led the manufacturer agreed to be the government to close the purchase price of the batteries. I called it a performance in eight years. Mr. Edison was the only man who could do it. I was with him when he was arrested by a private who heard the story. Cortez was taken to the police station in his automobile. # GIRL MASKS AS BOY TO BE WITH MATE

SAN BERNARDINO, Sept. 14.—Masquerading as a boy while accompanying the man she claims as her husband while on a "bumming" trip from Denver to this city, pretty 17-year-old Bessie Wright was discovered to be a girl at San Bernardino today when, in a hasty encounter with a Salt Lake passenger train brakeman, her great wealth of blonde hair fell down her back and a heavy tap was knocked from her head.

The girl was fighting side by side with her alleged husband, William Wright of Denver, to keep from being ejected from the train. The pair were caught on top of a baggage car. They were jailed by the San Bernardino police. The girl was sent to the detention home.

GIRL TELLS STORY OF ROMANCE.

Blue-eyed, with soft skin and every evidence of breeding and culture, the story the girl tells is one of romance and love opposed by her millionaire father, whose identity she refuses to divulge, and an elopement despite conditions which made them start to "beat" their way to Los Angeles in most hazardous ways.

The San Bernardino police scout the statement that the two are married. Wright is twenty years the girl's senior. But the girl protests indignantly that they were married in La Junta, Colo., but cannot produce a marriage certificate.

Meeting Wright as a guide in the Garden of the Gods at Colorado Springs while she was attending a fashionable "party" there, the girl's story is that she fell madly in love with him and when he proposed marriage, she ran to her father for consent.

PAIR ELITES TO WEST.

The millionaire parent flew into a rare and ordered her home, she says. Instead, with but a few dollars of her own and with Wright almost penniless, they eloped together, traveling a route on the Santa Fe flyer out of Colorado. That was several weeks ago, the girl says.

They had been riding on the tops of baggage cars until halted at San Bernardino, hoping to find employment here. The girl's father is a big owner in the Golden Cycle and Bull Hill mining properties at Cripple Creek, Colo., she says. But she won't give her name. She says her father would come for her and annul her marriage to Wright, for whom she would rather die than leave, if he knew their whereabouts, and gives this reason for hiding her name.

CAR HITS FRUIT MAN.

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 14.—N. Dibini, a fruit dealer of Ninth avenue and Lincoln way, received injuries from which he may not recover in a collision at Willard and Frederick streets this morning. Dibini was driving his wagon into Market when it was struck by an inbound Ocean Beach car. He was pitched to the street and suffered a fractured skull. He was taken to the Park Hospital.

COAST ROADS LEAD COUNTRY, SAYS LEADER AT CONVENTION

CHEAP HIGHWAYS NEVER SATISFY, CLAIM EXPERTS

California, Oregon and Washington lead the nation in the construction of good roads, according to James H. MacDonald, chief of the American Road Builders' Association, who delivered a short address at the second day's session of the Pan-American Road Congress in the theater of the municipal auditorium this morning. Some of the roads in Oregon and California, he declared, excel famous roads of Europe and even the much-heralded Palisades drive along the Hudson.

"These Coast states have made wonderful progress in highway improvement," MacDonald said. "The roads in the Sitka-Kipou pass, in this state, and the Columbia highway along the Columbia river in Oregon are unsurpassed any place in the world. Thousands of miles of other arteries of traffic have been constructed throughout the three coast states that cannot be equaled anywhere else in this country, except, of course, in a few cases of a few short miles of road in one stretch. Taking the roads of California, Oregon and Washington in their entirety, however, these states are far ahead of others in this country."

IS PIONEER ROAD MAN.

MacDonald is one of the pioneer good roads men in the United States. He was for eighteen years a member of the Connecticut Highway Commission, holding the country's record for continuous service in that office. MacDonald is largely responsible for the big strides in road improvement work on the Pacific Coast as he was one of several experts who visited Europe a number of years ago, and, after examining the roads in the old world, returned here and made a campaign throughout all of the coast states for good roads.

"California and the other Coast states have done practically all of this wonderful work since eight years ago, when I made my good roads lecture tour," MacDonald said. "It is a wonderful achievement and one to be proud of. All manner of propaganda is due the people and the public servants of these states. Samuel Hill of Washington is also largely responsible for this wonderful work as it was he that first suggested the European trip and the subsequent campaign of good roads education on this Coast."

Today's session of the Congress was considerably augmented by large delegations from the conventions of the Pacific Highway Association and the Tri-State Good Roads Association, the members of which are co-operating with the American Road Builders' Association and the American Highway Association in the holding of the Pan-American Congress.

Charles F. Stern, California State Highway Commissioner, will preside at the annual banquet of the delegates to be held in the grill room of the Hotel Oakland at 7:30 o'clock this evening. The delegates were the guests last night of the Oakland Commercial Club at a smoker and high lunch, at which a musical program was given.

DEPLORES CHEAP POLICY.

W. S. Gearheart, Kansas state highway engineer, deplored the poor building policy of the states, which he said, "has been to build cheap culverts and bridges which have to be repaired or rebuilt after every flood, making the expense in the long run much greater than an original sturdy structure would have cost, and declared concrete bridges to be the most durable and serviceable under all conditions. He spoke on "Highway Bridges and Structures," saying, in part: "Highway bridge expenditures are a better system of financing should be provided to meet the higher cost of permanent structures. The extra expense, however, will not average to exceed 30 per cent more than the price now paid for temporary structures. The plans and specifications should be prepared by expert engineers employed by and representing the public, and not some special interests, and they should be approved by the state highway department and the work carried on under the direct supervision of some competent engineer."

Since the bridges and culverts must be maintained if the roads are to be used at all, and since they are made permanent, why not build them right and do it now?

Nelson P. Lewis, chief engineer of the Board of Estimate and Appropriation of New York City, spoke on "Highway Inadequacy," in a lecture on "The Reproduction of the fact that officials are prone to rush into road debts without the use of proper judgment. The use of bonds by the state, county or town, he said, is justifiable only when the benefit will be general."

Lewis said: The use of bonds by a state, county or town is justifiable only when, and to the extent to which, the benefit will be general. To impose upon the public at large a burden of taxation for a term of years when the benefit will be chiefly local is obviously unjust, but, conceding that a complete system of improved highways is of general benefit to the county or state, and that local benefit is so small as to make a direct assessment impracticable, there still remains the question as to how the necessary funds can be raised. He said: Unless state and municipal authorities show a disposition to limit the terms of their obligations more nearly to the life of improvements for which they are to pay it will probably be necessary to adopt a plan somewhat similar to that followed in Great Britain, where no obligations may be issued by any state, town or county authorities until there have been submitted to the local government board a precise statement showing the character of the improvement, its probable life and its estimated cost, when this board will determine the amount of the bonds which may be issued and the terms for which they may be sold, the purpose being to insure the liquidation of the debt within a period which is less than the life of the improvement.

Mad Millionaire On Way to West

Champagne Breakfast an Aberrant Sign

LOS ANGELES, Sept. 14.—A "mad millionaire," who, with a keeper whom he has bribed to accompany him West, is headed for Los Angeles, will be sought by special officers placed at all railroad stations, following a telegraphic request received yesterday from the police of Milwaukee.

The message says that Thomas B. Kerr, worth $2,000,000, escaped on September 6 from a sanatorium at Watonsville, Wis., by bribing Roger Malone, an attendant, who is now accompanying him.

A check-book backed by ample bank credit is said to be in Kerr's possession and it is added that he makes frequent use of it. The man is said to be affable and harmless, but to have such peculiarities as a desire to wear evening dress in the morning and to eat toast and drink champagne for breakfast.

Highway Engineering of the University of Wisconsin, believes that a liberal campaign of good roads education should be made among the public. His paper was on "The Educational Field for Highway Departments."

EDUCATION NEEDED.

Professor Smith said: We must teach our pupils by road building, by practical on-the-job instruction, and in our technical schools that a successful state highway system is absolutely dependent upon: First, a scientific selection and design of the proper type of construction for each widely different section and third, scientific maintenance of these roads to secure a minimum total annual cost to taxpayers with a maximum of comfortable service.

Our almost countless numbers of non-expert and short-term local highway officials (400 in Wisconsin) have attempted to improve present road conditions for fifty years. Their efforts have consumed many hundreds of millions of dollars, out up to the time in very recent years when state highway departments took responsible charge of this work, the net result of their enormous expenditures were road conditions little, if any, better than when these officials began their job, and, in fact, worse.

While a cannot rise to the plane of efficiency secured by bureaucratic governments, state highway departments can greatly improve present road conditions by maintaining a standard of road construction at least of the most progressive and efficient. The state would thus be a leader rather than a follower of public opinion.

DRAINAGE AND FOUNDATION.

George W. Cooley, state engineer of Minnesota, told the congress that the success of any road is dependent upon the complete drainage and uniformity of material in the foundation. His paper was on "Road Drainage and Foundation," and was in part as follows: After drainage is secured, the important points in road foundations are to eliminate all vegetable and perishable matter and to build up the foundation uniformly. Draining and planing the surface of a road is being built will prevent the waviness of surface which develops occasionally after the completion of a road, and it is advisable to place such requirements in specifications.

William R. Roy, State Highway Commissioner of Washington, spoke on "Proper Road Location, Its Importance and Effect."

Roy's paper, in part, follows: There have been placed in past years many lines of large capacity passenger automobiles, which pass close to the farmer's door, and which will carry him to town quickly and conveniently, and at a reduced rate over the former passenger tariffs on the electric or steam railways. This increased traffic in turn has produced more problems for the highway officials and locators. The highway that was built a few years ago with the grades and curvature that seemed to the locator to be justified by existing traffic conditions and too drastic alterations is now intolerably crooked and the grades are too steep.

AWAITS WORD OF MISSING WOMAN

SACRAMENTO, Sept. 14.—Fearful of what the next wire may bring, yet nearly frantic for news of her sweetheart, Miss Jane Ellis, formerly of Portland, is awaiting in Sacramento word of the fate of Lester Butler, aviator, who ascended in a balloon at Astoria a week ago Saturday and to whom no word has yet come down.

Miss Ellis is visiting with Mr. and Mrs. William Franks at 2240 Madison avenue, Oak Park, and has wired Portland for information concerning her fiancé as soon as anything can be learned concerning what became of him.

"We were to have been married in October," said Miss Ellis, "but there was nothing for trace of him, but there was nothing to indicate that he had dropped out water or on land. When they last saw the big bag, it was floating out over the ocean. It was then nearly dark with anxiety since Saturday and I can't get any news of him."

Miss Ellis was one of the young women who passed through Sacramento about two months ago hiking from Portland to

British May Free Baron Von Horst

Vigilance in Spy Case Relaxed, Is Word

The grasp of the British law is relaxing slowly in favor of Baron Louis von Horst, brother of E. Clemens Horst, wealthy hop grower of Alameda. Baron von Horst has been held prisoner for months by the British on suspicion of being a German spy.

According to cable advices received today by Horst, the British authorities have issued an order permitting Baron von Horst to go to his office unattended twice a week from the Dalston Hotel, where he has been held for the last several months with other prisoners of war.

Baron von Horst is in the hop business, being head of the Horst Company, with headquarters in London.

According to cable advices the prospects for his brother's release from British custody seem favorable. United States Senator James D. Phelan is handling the case, Horst says, and he is hopeful for an early order giving the baron his full liberty.

Baron von Horst was held on the detention ship Royal Edward, but was transferred to the hospital when he suffered a complete breakdown. His health is returning rapidly.

MARVELS AT LACK OF SCANDAL

Is there peril in the proximity of fraternity houses to sorority houses in the college community?

Is the fact that there has never been breath of scandal because of this proximity any proof that there never will be?

These questions are raised by marion Constant d'Estournelles, best known member of the French pacifist school and a senator for life in the French republic. He has written a book on "America and Her Problems." The writing of the book followed his visit to American colleges, including the University of California, and echoes the questions he asked of various faculty men by whom he was entertained here.

VISITS MANY SCHOOLS.

Baron d'Estournelles also visited Stanford and remarked upon the same closeness of masculine and feminine dwelling houses there. After these visits he returned to France and wrote his book. Among other observations an American college life he phrases these doubts as follows:

"The houses occupied by the girls and youths are close together and intermingled, and there is never a breath of scandal. All these young people have no thought of evil; but it will be all the more easy to deceive them and lead them astray, and how necessary it is to put them on their guard. I have often expressed these fears on leaving these young men and girls abandoned, so to speak, as they were, to their own instincts. Finally, however, I began to wonder: whether this kind of education is not the best of safeguards, and whether the use of liberty is not the best form of precaution and discipline."

ASKS SEPARATION OF DELINQUENTS

Feeble-Minded Ones Should Be Isolated, Professor Tells League.

"Most boys are delinquent and bad because they haven't enough intelligence to be good."

This statement by the professor of the Stanford University, who is the head of the Stanford University League for the Study of the Feeble-Minded and Juvenile Delinquents, was made today to the members of the Child Welfare League at Hotel Oakland.

It is true, he said, "that some boys are bad because they want to be bad. The flimsy excuse of environment also sometimes holds. But a great many boys are delinquent and bad because they haven't enough intelligence to be good. And until that fact is thoroughly ground into the people of California they will never get the results they expect from delinquent boys and girls."

"A feeble-minded delinquent has no more business in a reform school than an insane person," he commented, adding a drastic condemnation of the present prevailing system of shutting up juvenile offenders together irrespectively of their mentalities. Yet, he said, fully one-third of the 150 boys at Whittier are feeble-minded. Another and larger number border between feeble-mindedness and the normal, while the residue belong to the normal grade, a few possessing really superior faculties."

As a result, according to the Stanford investigator, the State is wasting money by attempting to teach trades to a number of boys who will never be able to learn anything, and is thereby handicapping the boys with possibilities. Today, he said, the State spends about $1000 a year "a head" on its juvenile delinquents. "It would be a paying investment," he concluded to establish a separate colony for the feeble-minded, where they would be neither dangerous to themselves nor to the community.

"Every feeble-minded child is a potential delinquent. The first thing a feeble-minded boy of 21 does when he is let out of a reform school is to marry—usually a sub-normal or feeble-minded girl. The children of these people are invariably feeble-minded, and the number usually averages between seven and ten progeny."

It is estimated, according to Williams, that if the feeble-minded of

Uncle Wiggily and Sammie's Sand Mill

(Copyright, 1915, by McClure Newspaper Syndicate.)

Down at the seashore, where Uncle Wiggily Longears, the rabbit gentleman, was spending a few days to catch up on his sleep, as well as to get the fresh air, he was sitting on a bench, looking out at the sea.

"Perhaps you don't know what sand mills are, so I'll tell you. They are made of pine boards and turn out sand. You put up sand, and let it fall down again. Sand mills are just like water wheels, except that they hold sand instead of water, and it's the fall of the sand that turns them."

Sammie Littlefoot, the boy rabbit, had a toy sand mill, which Uncle Wiggily had given him on his birthday. Well, one morning Sammie started off upon his beach to play with his sand mill. He went to the beach, and saw his friend, Ethel Brummers, Pretti-girl, with her.

"But I'll let you play with my sand mill," said Uncle Wiggily. "Thank you," said Sammie. "But I'll let you play with my sand mill," said Uncle Wiggily. "Thank you," said Sammie.

California were shut up for the next fifty years, at the end of that time the world would be a different place."

Interest was roused among the listeners when the speaker affirmed that most of the boys of Whittier had dropped out of the normal grade, and that they remained to learn a trade were it not for the "four provision for vocational guidance."

"But the school lets them go all the time to learn their trade in a reform school," he told them.

"Dr. Susan Fenton, vice-president of the league, inquired: 'How long will it take our clubs and organizations to hammer it into our legislators that we need a colony for the feeble-minded?'"

Another listener queried how long it would take to educate parents into permitting their feeble-minded children to be shut up in institutions? Williams supposed it would take time.

At the conclusion of his talk he snowed charts giving the as yet unpublished results of the study of the heredity of the feeble-minded delinquent. Most of them had feeble-minded parents, either married to the feeble-minded, or to alcoholics. Many came from people who were criminals or moral degenerates.

The results of Mrs. Littlefoot's work with sub-normal children in the Oakland schools were described by Miss Rose, a teacher in one of the special classes provided for children who fall to progress in the regular classes.

"People are awakening to the recognition of the relation between antisocial acts and defective mentality," he reported. "In the past we have been hampered in schools by the refusal to recognize how the teaching of the normal is held back by not taking out the sub-normal."

The success of our special classes in Oakland has been largely due to the free hand that has been given the psychological director.

"Only a perfectly trained mind should attempt to judge which children are normal and which are not."

The "egotism" of parents, principals and superintendents and instructors who feel competent to decide as to a child's mind when they would beguile to pronounce on his physical condition or ailments, came in for a share of comment.

Especially the parent who refused to admit that his off-spring was not a brilliant specimen even though he couldn't take the slightest care of himself.

At the suggestion of the president, Mrs. A. D. Kennedy, the members of the Child Welfare League signed a petition to the Board of Education asking for a home teacher, provided for under the law passed at the last legislature.

The little rabbit girl began making a sand mill for her doll, which she named Sammie. She put some sand in the bottom buckets, and then, by turning a little handle, she could turn the buckets up when they were full of sand, and let the sand out. Then the sand would fall down again, and the wheel would turn around as nicely as you please. Then the sand would fall down again, and the wheel would turn around as nicely as you please.

"Now it's your turn, if you want to play with it," said the rabbit boy. "And you may play with my doll, if you like," said Sammie. "Thank you," said Sammie.

"I guess boys don't play with dolls," said Sammie. "But thank you just the same," said Sammie. "I'll walk down the beach, and see if I can see Sammie Littlefoot."

"He is going to show me a new way to swim," said Sammie. "All right," answered Sammie. "I'll play with your sand mill until you come back."

So, while Sammie went to find the duck, the little rabbit girl dipped her hand in the sand, and let it fall down on the whirling wheel, and let it fall down on the whirling wheel, and let it fall down on the whirling wheel.

"A sand mill is very nice," said Sammie. "A sand mill is very nice," said Sammie. "A sand mill is very nice," said Sammie.

"Oh, Sammie," exclaimed Nannie, "don't you want to come with me?" "Where?" said Sammie. "Down to the beach, where Aunt Lettie, the goat lady, lives. I have to go there to get my bathing suit. I left with her to read, and when I come back we'll go in swimming. Come on."

"I'd like to go," spoke Sammie. "But Sammie, let me here with my sand mill, and I'll go away and leave it on the beach, some one may take it."

"Yes," said Nannie. "That's so. Oh, here comes Uncle Wiggily," suddenly cried the goat girl. "He'll watch the sand mill for you."

"Will you, Uncle Wiggily?" asked Sammie. "To be sure I will," answered the old rabbit gentleman, who was out taking a walk, to get nice and tanned, so he would look like a brown cookie when his vacation was over.

"You run along," he said, kindly, to Sammie and Nannie. "I'll just lie down in the sand near Sammie's birthday mill, and no one will bother it."

So off ran the rabbit girl and the goat girl, and Uncle Wiggily sat down by the sand mill. He turned the crank handle once or twice, just to see how it would work, and the buckets of sand went up, spilled out on the whirling wheel, and made the flapper ring the bell.

"Well, well," exclaimed Uncle Wiggily. "That is certainly quite a toy. No wonder Sammie likes it. I am glad I bought it for him."

It was hot on the sand, and soon Uncle Wiggily began to feel sleepy. "I guess it won't do any harm if I take a little sleep," he said to himself. "I can go to sleep with one paw over the sand mill, and if any bad animal comes along and try to take it I'll wake up and stop them."

Soon Uncle Wiggily was asleep by the sand mill. Sammie had gone off with Nannie Wagtail, and Sammie, the rabbit boy, was having a swimming lesson with Jimmie Wigglesworth, the duck chap.

All of a sudden, out of the ocean came a bad old sea lion. He reared up on his head, with the water dripping from his whiskers, and, when he saw Uncle Wiggily all alone asleep on the sand by Sammie's mill, the sea lion said:

"Ah, ha! There is that same old rabbit gentleman who was here last year. I tried to catch him then, but I couldn't."

Lutheran Books of Worship Revised

ROCK ISLAND, Ill., Sept. 14.—At today's session of the General Council of the Lutheran Church in America it was announced in the report of the Church Book Committee that the work of revising the English books of worship in the Lutheran churches had been completed after many years' work, and it was hoped that the new forms would circulate largely toward a United English Lutheranism America.

The existing books and services have been thoroughly revised, according to the purest liturgies of the Lutheran Church of the sixteenth century. The result is a book upon which all three main bodies of Lutherans have come to perfect agreement, and all publishing houses will print from common plates. The new book is to be called "The Common Service Book and Hymnal." It will be published in a music edition, also an edition with words only. The committee added a memorial tribute to the late Rev. Horn of Philadelphia.

The secretary of the committee, who had labored most faithfully on this book and who died just before the realization of the aims of the committee had been attained.

FIRST OVER ROUTE
By Associated Press
PHILADELPHIA, Sept. 14.—The British steamship Saint Leonards, the first vessel to clear from this port for Vladivostok by way of the Bering Canal, sailed today for the Siberian port. Fifteen locomotives and 6000 tons of steel rails comprised the cargo, valued at about $575,000. It was sent on the order of the Russian government, and supposedly will be followed by similar shipments.

Now he is asleep, and I'll have no trouble. "Ah, ha! This is a lucky day for me. I'll just creep out on the sand and grab him before he wakes up. I wonder what that red thing is he has in his paw. No matter, I guess it can't hurt me."

Softly, softly, out on the sand, up to the ocean, crept the sea lion. Nearer and nearer, smacking his lips and wiggling his whiskers, he came toward Uncle Wiggily.

"Now I have you!" whispered the sea lion. But a sea lion's whisper is almost as loud as thunder, and, of course, Uncle Wiggily heard it and woke up.

"Now I have you!" said the sea lion, and he made a grab for the rabbit gentleman.

Uncle Wiggily was hardly awake, but he managed to turn back just in time, so he was not caught. And as the rabbit gentleman jumped, his paw accidentally turned the crank handle of the sand mill. Up came a bucket full of sand. Out it spilled on the red wheel. Around went the red wheel. Down went the sand on the flapper.

"Bang!" the flapper hit the bell. "Ding-dong!" went the bell, and then the sand flew right in the eyes of the bad sea lion.

"Oh, w-o-w!" cried the unpleasant animal. "Oh, Ker-choo! Ker-choo! Ker-choo!" he sneezed, smacking his head that he hit himself back into the ocean, and didn't hurt Uncle Wiggily a bit.

"Ha!" cried the sea lion, and he rubbed his eyes to make himself wide awake. "That's the time I fooled the sea lion. I'm glad I had Sammie's sand mill, for, or I don't know what would have happened."

Then the rabbit boy came back from his swimming, and he was glad to see Uncle Wiggily had thrown sand in the sea lion's eyes to make him sneeze. And from this we may learn that it is better to sit down on a rubber ball than step on a tack. And, if the talcum powder doesn't blow a hole in the toothbrush, so it can't wash its face for breakfast. I'll tell you next about Uncle Wiggily and the sand game.

WANT AUTOS FOR GOOD ROADS VISITORS

200 Cars Needed for Saturday
Tour Over Wishbone Route.

(By J. F. HOULIHAN.)
An appeal has been sent out by Secretary Joseph Quinn of the Oakland Commercial Club, or 200 automobiles for use on next Saturday in connection with the member of the Pan-American Road Congress on a tour over the Wishbone Route, from Oakland to San Francisco via San Jose.

The response is very gratifying, yet there is need of many more cars than have already been promised.

Every owner of an automobile who can possibly spare the time is asked to join in this movement. One of the objects in making the tour is to afford the Eastern delegates to the Good Roads Congress, now in session here, a chance to inspect some of the California State Highway system of roads.

San Jose is to be reached via the Santa Clara Valley, and local visitors at a barbecue in the Garden City.

The tour will start from Hotel Oakland about 8 a. m. and will be over before 6 p. m.

Motorists who are anxious to co-operate in Saturday's affair can either notify the Commercial Club direct or communicate with the automobile department of The Tribune.

DEALERS' BANQUET ATTRACTS.
Thursday night's banquet in the Oakland Hotel, which the Automobile Industries Association is to hold, will be the most successful and best attended affair the organization has given. That this much is certain Secretary Herbert Smith announced today after checking up the replies to the invitation sent out through the county announcing the annual feast.

On the same day the California State Automobile Industries Association will have its conference. Two sessions are to be held, one at 10 a. m. and the second at 2 p. m.

ANTI-KAMMIA TABLETS FOR ALL PAIN

"The efficiency of any drug," says Dr. C. F. Robbins, "is known to us by the results we obtain from its use. If we are able to control pain and disease by means of any preparation, we certainly are warranted in its use. One of the principal symptoms of all diseases is pain, and this is what the patient most often applies to us for, i. e. something to relieve his pain. If we can arrest this promptly, the patient is most liable to trust in us for the other remedies which will effect a permanent cure. One remedy which I have used largely in my practice is Anti-Kammia Tablets. Many and varied are their uses. I have put them to the test on many occasions, and have never been disappointed. I found them especially valuable for headaches of malarial origin, where quinine was being taken. They appear to prevent the bad after-effects of the quinine. Anti-Kammia Tablets are also excellent for the headaches from improper digestion; also for headaches of a neurotic origin, and especially for women subject to pains at certain times. Two Anti-Kammia Tablets give prompt relief, and in a short time the patient is able to go about as usual." These tablets can be obtained at all drug stores. Ask for the tablets. They are also useful for headaches, neuralgia and all pains.

ABE AND MORRIS AT MACDONOUGH

Jays and Sorrows of "Potash and Perlmutter" Amuses Vast Audience.

"Potash and Perlmutter" best loved of clock and suit partners, were greeted by a well-filled house last night when they made the first bow of their return engagement at the Macdonough theater. There will be two matinees during the week, one tomorrow and another on Saturday.

During the three entertaining and absorbing comedies of the two able comedians, Morris Andrieu, a young Russian from the clutches of various other Russians bent on plunging him into a lifetime of frozen Siberia, Lew Welch and Jules Jordan were cordially received. The supporting cast, including Bertha Martin, Freda Roth, Pearl Ford and others, also came in for a share of appreciation.

The necessary touch of romance is introduced into the tangle of Russian intrigue and national politics by several scenes between a "lady designer" of dazzling exterior and appalling efficiency and the most human Perlmutter, and several more touching episodes between the tormented Boris and Abe's young daughter, the ingenue.

TRIBUNE BUREAU, Panama-Pacific Exposition, Sept. 14.—A convention of women voters under the auspices of the Congressional Union of Women Suffrage, in the Inside Inn, is one of several interesting events of the day.

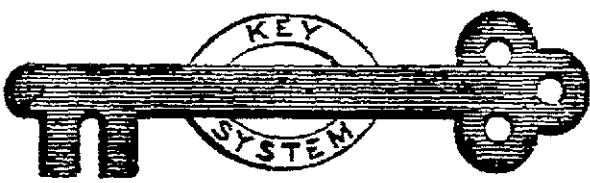

The women's suffrage question is being discussed from all sides by prominent speakers. This might almost be said to be women's day at the fair for the first time, and the meeting is held under their auspices. The Grand Council of the Catholic Ladies' Aid Society is

MINING STOCKS IN SPIRITED ADVANCE

Keweenaw Again Feature, Going Up 6 Cents on 12,000-Share Purchases.

Renewed activities in Goldfield and elsewhere, and a rush of buying orders from New York, has caused the Keweenaw stock to advance in many months. Keweenaw was last sold at 12 1/2 cents, and now it is 17 1/2 cents. The advance was made by a purchase of 12,000 shares, which was made by the Keweenaw Mining Co. on September 10.

There was a persistent inquiry for Arizona Tom Reed, which rose from 25c to 35c. The stock was sold. Neither stock was sold.

EXPORTS FALL OFF SHARPLY

DROP $27,000,000 FOR WEEK

WASHINGTON, Sept. 14.-Exports fell off sharply during the week ending September 11. They amounted to $23,583,795, the lowest for one week this year, and a drop of $27,000,000 for the week preceding.

The trade balance for the week fell to $6,672,241. Although the figures represent only five days of actual business, no trade having been recorded for Labor Day, the decrease is far out of proportion to the loss of a single day. Imports for the week were $26,011,457.

No definite explanation is available in official quarters for the change. Some officials believe trade has slackened while the British loan is being negotiated.

CHARGE WUBBEN WITH EMBEZZLING

Cashier Will Appear in Court Tomorrow; Is Physical Wreck.

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 14.—Seven charges of embezzlement were booked against William H. Wubben of Burlingame, cashier of the California Insurance Company this morning as the result of an investigation of the books of the Pacific coast offices of the concern.

The total amount alleged to have been misappropriated is $10,000, and the warrants were sworn out before Police Judge Brady by A. C. Olds, general manager of the California Insurance Company. Wubben will appear in court tomorrow. He is almost a physical wreck as the result of worry and confinement since he surrendered himself last week confessing that he had taken the money of his employers. He professes at that time that he did not know how much had been stolen and asserted that it might run well into the thousands. The charges preferred by Olds set forth that Wubben's stealings occurred between July 3 and July 27 and the specific amount mentioned in the seven complaints are as follows: $100.00; $122.90; $129.40; $128.50; $111.00; $145.75; $104.25.

Children Win Contest for Father's Fortune

Distribution of the $20,000 estate of the late Edward A. Bissett, a former Southern Pacific engineer, who lived in Oakland, has been ordered by Superior Judge Lewis A. Yick, business court, where the will was contested by the two children, W. M. Bissett and Florence Bissett. It was held by the contestants that the will, which was drawn in Oakland by their father and which contained a gift of $1 each, had been obtained by their stepmother, Mrs. Nina J. Bissett, who was named executrix. The will was made on Bissett's deathbed.

Wilson Discusses Eastland Disaster

WASHINGTON, Sept. 14.—Enforcement of the new seamen's law and the recent disaster to the steamer Eastland at Chicago were up for discussion today before President Wilson and Secretary Redfield. Mr. Redfield indicated he thought the Department of Commerce would be able to administer the seamen's law effectively, despite recent official criticism.

The Eastland disaster has developed several contemplated changes in the system of steamboat inspection and a report on the wreck had been before the President for some time.

JAPANESE LABOR BOYCOTT BEGUN

All Help Discharged From Restaurants Operated by Chinese Merchants.

CHICAGO, Sept. 14.—Wholesale discharge of Japanese cooks and waiters, part of a boycott proclaimed some time ago by Chinese on Japanese labor and products throughout the United States.

More than 500 Japanese waiters and cooks in Chinese restaurants have been summarily discharged. Chinese servants are refusing to work in hotels or homes where Japanese are employed and Chinese merchants of Chicago have pledged themselves, it was said, to purchase no merchandise from Japanese wholesalers or importers.

Moy Dung Jo, president of the Chinese Merchants' Association of Chicago, said that not a Japanese was working in a Chinese restaurant or store and all Chinese merchants have stopped importing curios and chinaware from Japan.

The boycott does not have the approval of the Chinese government," he said, "but it is so well organized that within a month or so business between Chinese and Japanese in this country will have stopped."

CHAMP CLARK FOR MERCHANT MARINE

Army Needs Officers and the Nation Needs Ships, He Says.

HANNIBAL, Mo., Sept. 14.—Speaker Champ Clark of the National House of Representatives, declared in an address here that he, "like every other American with common sense," was opposed to "peace at any price."

"I am in favor of reasonable preparedness," Speaker Clark continued. "In the event of a war we could get sufficient volunteers in four months, but we do need officers. To provide them, double the number of cadets at West Point and Annapolis. Put the surplus of them in command of ships that will cross the seas under the American flag."

"At one time the American marine was the greatest on the seas. The Administration is determined to have such a marine again and if the rest of the country acts sensibly we shall have it."

the Oregon-Washington railroad were held up last night just after supper and robbed of $250 by a lone bandit. The highwayman then escaped into the nearby woods. A large posse directed by four sheriffs is scouring the country near Independence, and according to a report early this morning had opened fire on the bandit suspect. He is believed to have been wounded. Tacoma police officers are watching all trains arriving in the city from Independence.
